

NMLA Archives and Archivists SIG

March 28, 2023

Since the last report, submitted to the NMLA Board on January 28, 2023, the following activities have occurred:

- Held two meetings with our SIG membership and faithfully documented the associated meeting minutes. Meetings are held every two months.
 - February 8th – 20 in attendance
 - March 24th – hosted a 60-minute workshop via Zoom, “Standards for Digital Archives,” a professional development training by the Society of American Archivists (SAA); 32 in attendance.
- Continued work on the following projects:
 - Multiple members of the SIG are serving on the Society of Southwest Archivists Local Arrangements Committee (SSA LAC) for the upcoming annual SSA meeting in Albuquerque, April 26-29. The conference will be SSA’s first fully-hybrid conference, allowing for attendees to access all conference sessions, tours, and workshops whether in person or at a distance.
 - The third continuing education SAA sessions for SIG members that will take place in May. Final date and time to be determined. These sessions made possible by financial support of NMLA.

Respectfully submitted,
